PRIVACY STATEMENT

We are committed to the protection of personal data and have adopted a policy to protect information about individuals. This policy describes the information we collect, how we use that information, how that information may be disclosed, the security of that information, how you can access and correct any such information and other relevant details concerning your privacy.

1. Collection of Personal Information

You may provide personal information to us to receive information about our latest membership benefits, newsletters, activities and events organized by the association, to be contacted for messages such as surveys, member service notices and other service related notices, or to become involved in initiatives organized or recommended by us. This personal information may include details such as your name, age, gender, contact information, education, professional information, topics you are interested in or require more information about.

The choice of how much information you provide to us is yours. We seek this information either to process your request for information and provide that information to you, to improve the quality of our communication to you.

2. How do we use the Personal Information?

The personal information obtained from this website is used, where you have so requested:

- to provide products and services to you
- to provide you with information, newsletters or other communications
- to involve you in initiatives undertaken by us

Other than for the purposes described above, we will not use your personal information without your prior consent. The only exception to this rule is where disclosure is necessary to prevent injury to life or health, to investigate any suspected unlawful activity or where it may be required by law such as in a response to a warrant, subpoena or other legal process.

3. Security of your information

We take reasonable steps to ensure the security of all information we collect from risks such as loss or unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification or disclosure of data. For example, your personal information is maintained in a secure environment which can be accessed only by authorized personnel.

4. Disclosure of Personal Information

Personal information collected through IFAPP is not disclosed or passed on to third parties unless it is in accordance with this privacy statement. Information may be provided to third parties where any functions or services are being outsourced or you would reasonably expect us to disclose it to a third party for a particular purpose.

We will not disclose your personal information in circumstances other than those described above without your prior consent.

5. Access and correction of personal information

You may request access to your personal information collected through this association at any time. Please send an email to secretariat@ifapp.org. If any information is incorrect please advise us and we will update it.

6. Changes to this Privacy Statement

This privacy policy may change from time to time particularly as new rules, regulations and industry codes are introduced.
